Achieve complete operation on financial projects. With real-time reporting and easy-to-read charts and graphs, you'll have the information you need at a glance. StatsRemote

Currency conversion tool that calculate the value of your earnings from multiple countries. Hundreds of countries are supported Advanced currency conversion engine Comprehensive conversion table Offline use StatsRemote is a tool that allows you to compare your affiliate earnings from the point of view of countries or even states. It calculates the sum of the values from your commissions in different currencies and then it determines the value of each country and converts it into your destination currency. You can also export these calculations as CSV, XLS or XLSX files, which gives you the freedom to organize and sort it the way you want. The tool shows three detailed charts for each country based on the number of affiliates, revenues and visitors. Each chart can be sorted by setting the columns in order to focus on the information you want to view the most. In addition, the report allows you to change the number of items you want to see in the charts as well as the date range. StatsRemote is designed to store all the data in one place, so you can easily switch from one period of time to another. It also allows you to graph the data you've stored in the history. This makes it possible to analyze your earnings based on monthly, weekly or daily intervals. The converted values are always displayed in a way that makes it easy for you to compare the numbers at a glance. All the conversion values are stored in the conversion table, which can be viewed and sorted by the fields in a variety of ways. You can also choose to display them in percentages, numbers or even in the current currency or in the equivalent currency for a certain country. StatsRemote is provided as a standalone application. You can use it both online and offline. The application is compatible with multiple browsers and platforms, including Windows, Mac, Linux, Android, iOS and others. StatsRemote is powerful, easy to use, and it is for free. Review
